A message from Governor Robert F. McDonnell

The Commonwealth's history should be studied and remembered to better understand the sacrifices of the Virginians who fought and lived during the four tumultuous years of the Civil War. Virginia's Civil War battlefields, parks, and sites of interest – a collection larger than in any other state – cover every region across our Commonwealth.

We welcome the nation and the world to Virginia during the sesquicentennial of the Civil War and Emancipation and we hope you will enjoy your time in our beautiful and historic Commonwealth.
